

POINTS AND MOTIONS

Motion of Procedure:

Motion of Procedure for..	Description	Floor open?	Vote?
Open the session	To begin the session	yes	yes
Open a topic	To choose the topic to be discussed	yes	yes
Open the Speakers' List	To assign the order in which the speakers will present their position within a limited time.	yes	yes
Make a session of (number) questions.	To ask a limited number of questions to the Speaker on the Speakers' List.	yes	yes
Open a Moderated Caucus	To open an informal, moderator guided, debate with limited time.	yes	yes
Make an extension of the Moderated Caucus	To continue with a new time limit (less than the 1 st), when the first is over.	yes	yes
Open a Simple Caucus	To open an informal without the Moderator's guide, but limited in time. (Usually to work on Working Paper or Resolutions)	yes	yes
Make an extension of the Simple Caucus	To continue with a new time limit (less than the 1 st), when the first is over.	yes	yes
Introduce the Working Paper	To read the Working Paper (s) after being approved by the Chair.	yes	no
Introduce Draft Resolution(s) (A1,A2,A3,B1,B2,etc)	To present possible Draft Resolution(s) after being approved the Chair. (After reading all drafts the delegates will vote to approve only one.)	yes	no
Close or postpone the session	To temporarily suspend the debate.	yes	yes
Close the Debate	To conclude the debate and vote on the Final Resolution.	yes	yes

Points of Motion:

Phrases	Description	Floor open?	Vote?
Point of personal privilege	When the delegate is asking for a personal petition. (Physical inconvenience)	no	no
Point of order	To object to a mistake/error in the protocol, or misuse of a procedure	no	no
Point of parliamentary inquiry	To make a question to the Chair about the protocol	yes	no
Reply Right	To reply an accusation or offense another delegate has made against you or your country.	yes	no
Motion to modify part of the Resolution	To make specific changes to the Resolution	yes	yes